Contemporary music for violin, piano, double bass, and contrabass flute; in a variety of mixed ensembles. All works commissioned compositions of Patrick Neher, professor of music and double bass solo artist. 14 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Modernist, CLASSICAL: Keyboard Music Details: Patrick Neher's compositions have been acclaimed as "uniquely lyrical and rhythmic" with grace, beauty, humor, and classical development. In this new album of Neher's commissioned compositions, the performers are who the pieces were written for. Each piece has a special meaning and story to it, utilizing the talents of the performers, and seeking to touch their musical and life interests. Patrick Neher's career as a performer has taken him around the world in acclaimed recitals and master class appearances. Now his compositions are being played around the world and he is asked to compose music in numerous genres with "irregular" instrumental combinations. One might think of other composers when hearing Patrick Neher's new music, but will soon find a true unique voice being expressed through the contrapuntal and lyrical soundscapes. Neher's ability to write in numerous genres (jazz, classical, electronic, film, dance) speak to his craft at taking the listener into creative, intellectual space. This new album is truly a gift of "Music 4 Friends." People who are interested in Igor Stravinsky Claude Bolling should consider this download.
