German influenced Electronica-type Soundscapes with a somewhat bizzare twist. Not for the squeamish. 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes Details: Russ Krauch is an Electronica based artist based in a large East Coast area that is unfortunately not New York City. Russ takes the German-based Electronica artists of the past and gives them his own personal stamp. "Reise Durch Europa"(or Journey Through Europe for those of you rusty on your European) is a half hour of Moog synthesizers, odd guitar ramblings, Germanic robots, elves with a grudge, Apedogs with soft synths, and bizzare sounds from the tormented inner reaches of the soul. But, you like bizzare, don't you? Notorious skinflints and tightwads can click on the samples at the left. But for true sonic bliss, order your copy today.
