From energetic to reflective, raw to smooth, heavy to mellow, Savin iLL works wonders at touching every vibe imaginable. Evocative, full of resonance, Savin iLLs addictive blend of styles is perfectly grafted together with marvelous textures, alluring melodies and potent performance ability. Savin iLL has opened several times for and shared the stage with Cappadonna of the Wu Tang Clan as well as opening for Inspectah Deck, also from Wu Tang Clan, and old school legend Kool G Rap. Savin iLLs Homesick took home the 2005 Great American Song Honor Award. The band was nominated for best live act at the 2006 Boston Hip Hop Awards and nabbed a glowing review from the arts editor at Boston College. Savin iLL boasts a huge fan base for an indie act, with 25,000 friends on MySpace, and has performed all over New England and New York. Following completion of an upcoming sophomore release, Savin iLL has sights set on hitting the road to promote the new album and gigs are scheduled even now. The new full-length should be out for public consumption early in 2007. "Savin iLL produces some genuinely good songs that can stand on their own even without the impressive and intelligent rapping. It is funk, jazz, hip hop, and even traces of rock blended seamlessly into exciting compositions that can make you think just as easily as make you dance." "It's been a long time since a group like this has come along. And it will probably be an even longer time before we see another band quite like it." -Kevin Sawyer, Boston College newspaper "The Heights" arts editor, 9/28/04
