At such a young age Rick realized his natural ability to write and freestyle lyrics of a higher caliber, considering he was so young. Sick Rick, who then went by the name "Slikk" had ambition to take his music to an even higher level, which began when he met Shaun "Coach" P Primus in 2004 . Coach P, gave Sick Rick his name and guidance which led to the production of Sick's first album "Rock da Party" which dropped early in 2005. Sick Rick, "Rock da party album sold and did well, but sells came to an early end due to a mutual business decision. After the smoke cleared, Sick Rick begin to develop his own personal style,which led to the evolution of his new album entitled "(It's Ova It's a W(rap)" scheduled to be released summer of 2006. At this time Sick Rick is currently residing in Las Vegas,NV.(the true city of entertainment), "what better place to be ", Sick is Young, Eager, Aggressive, Humble and Hungry, which inspired him to launch his label Y.E.A.H.H. Entertainment. Sick Rick's style, is a mixture of smooth insightful lyrics, with a hint of street savvy flow, over unconventional mouth dropping tracks. What seperates Sick from other artist is his ability to punch you line after line using his vast vocabulary without employing profanity, yet still take his audience on a captivating lyrical journey. Sick's music creates multifaceted moods, ranging from the mellow flow of LL to the rythmic up tempo styles of artist like Nelly and Fabolous born on the day before Halloween, Sick Rick's music is a definite treat!!!!
