Label based in Detroit. 17 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, HIP HOP/RAP: Trip Hop Details: Sharewarez: "Variety is the main reason Sharewarez is an interesting and compelling listen. If you're frustrated with scouring the Internet to find the latest in obscure electronic music, take heart -- you'll find a song to fit your every mood and musical taste on Sharewarez, neatly wrapped up in one tidy bundle." - Splendid E-Zine Suisse Modular: The innovation of digable beats atop layers of textured sound...best described as a holy listening experience. They picked up where Enigma left off. Not only are they a rare live electronic band...and I do stress - band - They are one of the few to break the Electronic "gender barrier". Their band consists of 3 ladies. Their album "Fly Me To The Lunar" is due Late 2002. Sample The Martian : They fuse trip hop, instrumental hip-hop, instrumental electronic and many forms of rock with odd song structures and other musical experimentation. Some songs are lyrical masterpieces and some are musical adventures. sh - This trio is from the woods of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, in a small town called Marquette. They fluctuate between two drummers and a guitarist and a standard outfit of guitar, bass and drums with few but well placed screams. To see them live is nothing less than a musical religious experience.
