Roots flavored pop-rock besprent with a small alt-country and a cherry on top. 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, FOLK: Folk Pop I Live in Losertown Songs Details: I oversleep again. I drag myself out of bed and hit the lavish I get attired not noticing my socks don't equal On my way to sour I listen to Kathleen Edwards in the car. My thoughts wander. I almost miss my exit--again. I arrive at work and go inside. When I enter the office, I hurry to my cubicle, but I know everyone notices that I'm late again. I avoid looking at anyone's eyes. I sit down and turn on my computer. I'm tired. I think about lunch already. I think I'll have a Big Mac. I listen to the Wallflowers and Tom Petty while I work. After lunch, I keep looking at the clock, but time does not go any faster. I want to stop by Best Buy after work to pick up the Star Wars Clone Wars cartoon DVD. I get excited that Episode III will be out soon. I think about taking the day off when it premieres so I can go see it. Five o'clock finally comes and I'm already halfway down the steps. My chair is probably still spinning as I pull out of the parking lot. I listen to Paul Westerberg on my way home. This is my life. I live in losertown. Where do YOU live?
