The 2nd funky, rockin', rowdy kids' CD from kid-loved critically acclaimed songwriter Chris Hamilton.

"Chris Hamilton plays songs that are as memorable as they are loaded with kids' humor...A party-ready mix." Nick Jr. Family Magazine 15 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY:

Children's Pop Details: Childrens musician Chris Hamilton follows up his critically-acclaimed, kid-and-parent-loved Sticky Situations CD (2004) with Boogie Child, an all-new collection of 15 lively, original songs celebrating the sillier side of modern life for school-age kids. On Boogie Child: "This is a fine album for families (my three-year old asks for it by name) and could find a place in any classroom peopled with young dancing machines. Recommended." - CM: Canadian Review of Materials "This is a collection that both parents and children will love to listen to over and over again...In class, at home, or even with Mom in the Minivan this CD is sure to please!" - Resource Links "It is best enjoyed where there's room for dancing but great in the car, too!" - Edmonton's Child "There's a new kids' musician on the block, and he'll have you and your children singing and dancing along to his tunes faster than you can say 'Worm Germs!'" - Greater Victoria Public Library Staff Picks webpage ***** The story of Boogie Child: Chris Hamilton meets many families who share their hilarious anecdotes and for Boogie Child he took inspiration from those stories to create the songs I Didnt Know Mammias In the Minivan. He also finds humour in seemingly mundane events for songs like The Worst Haircut and The Dentist then jumps to total silliness for songs like Worm Germs, Silly Songs and Youre An Animal!, a current hit at his live shows. Songs like Middle Child Blues, Super-powered Superhero and Six to Eight Weeks spring directly from Hamiltons own childhood experiences. Without ever getting preachy, Hamilton also cleverly works in a few positive ideas about global awareness, co-operation and self-esteem in Kids

Are Kids Around the World, Lets Build and the title tune Boogie Child. Best known for his humour, offstage Hamilton takes childrens music very seriously. Kids deserve quality music and quality writing. The parents who buy my CDs should feel like that was money well spent, he says. From the rehearsals and recording to manufacturing he insists that everyone involved treat the project with the same professionalism as a recording for adults. To that end, Hamilton has once again gathered many of his friends in the Vancouver music scene to fill out the sound for Boogie Child including musicians who have played with The Clumsy Lovers, 54-40 and The Paperboys along with the regulars from his terrific back-up group, the Sticky Jam Band. Many musicians were required for the different sounds on Boogie Child because Hamilton crosses the musical map from Rock to Funk, Blues to Punk, Bluegrass to Beatnik Jazz, Ska and even Disco! ***** About Chris Hamilton: Chris is quickly becoming one of Canadas favourite childrens musicians by constantly performing at festivals, theatres, schools, shopping centres, libraries and anywhere else kids are. He has been performing for children since 2003 and now averages around 80 shows per year. His Sticky Situations CD was nominated for a Western Canadian Music Award for Outstanding Childrens Recording and for two "Just Plain Folks Music Awards" in the Children's Album and Children's Song categories. He is married and lives in Surrey, BC.
