Check us out. We are involved in the HipHop Industry, rapping, performing hardcore musics to the Haitian Community with original/licensed beats and lyrics within the States allowed. This is what we do for a living and we make sure that our style, songs and ideas don't fit anybody else profiles. We rap in Creole, French, English and Patois most definitely, so call the whole process RAP CREOLE, a new division or a branch of HipHop. Based on our differences and mixtures, we can not say we're strickly HipHop, but We represent Rap Creole, a new industry that was underground for more than a decade created by late Master Dji from Haiti Rap-N-Ragga, and that's about to blow out into a new crunky level. The whole group knows each other since day one, I mean, since we were kids, we grew up in the same block as family, most of us went to the same school, graduated, and we got good sencimiliar in da hood. Some of us went out of Country for School and personal reason and meet later one to follow the path. In Haiti, we're hardcore when it comes to HipHop, we mostly listen to 2Pac, DMX, BustaBust, Lil'Jone, Ruff Ryders, Terror Squad and a whole lot more. We love DanceHall/Reggae, Latino Music mostly Zouk, and any styles that make sense to us. But we play Kompa (Compas), RaRa, Voodoo, Bann, Ragganaval, Kompanaval, Rap Creole, Seranad, Troubadou, Chansonnette, those styles are strickly copywritted haitian styles. We use DJ accessories, we keep it simple, we don't like overheads, or we use requested equipments from the promoter if paid for it. FAMILY SENC is a gangsta reunion, joined by many clicks, many G. and collaborate with many MCs. We're all

FAMILY and love that SENCI. Big ups to C-Project, B-Rude Revolution, P-Rat, Squaddy, Traka, Mad S., Zikos, 205 Click and everybody in Kafoufey (Carrefour-Feuilles), Port-au-Prince Haiti, all my Haitian Massive in Chi-Town, Little Haiti, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Boston, ATL, F-S gotch'all the way. no doubt!
