Details: Kentucky girl Gayle Lynn writes songs of wit and sadness - bourbon soaked originals for the soul. The Hired Hands - Rik Elswit (Dr. Hook) on guitars, Mike Roper (Shut-Ins) on harmonica and vocals, Tom Drohan (Chazz Cats) on stand-up bass and Corey Losee (Riff Riders) on drums - give her music that "just right" twangy touch of country that makes you feel at home - whether you're laughing or crying in your beer. The tunes range from folk to country, with a little bit of rock. The songs tell tales of small town life, long-ago love, dissolving relationships and barroom gloom. And there are funny songs too! The Hired Hands are joined by several special guests on this project, including David Phillips the reigning king of the pedal steel in the Bay Area, Diana Greenberg (Belle Monroe Brewglass Boys, Whoreshoes) on triple fiddles, Scott Young (Red Meat) on trombone and many other helping hands who add seasoning to each song and provide a finely crafted backdrop for the talented songwriting of Gayle Lynn.
