

Mp3 Gene Viale The Early Years - Gospel: Traditional Gospel

DOWNLOAD HERE

This CD is a powerful collection of Traditional Gospel solos. Sounds range from traditional to jazz flavored Gospel songs. From smooth ballads to Up tempoed Gospel favorites. 9 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Gene Viale has been known to the African American Gospel audience for over forty years. In 1964, At the age of 17, Gene was brought to a national audience by the Rev. James Cleveland, as one of the legendary, James Cleveland Singers. Touring the nation, together with Rev. Cleveland-Odessa McCastle, Roger Roberts and later.. Clyde Brown with Charles Barnett at the piano. During a time in our country when the southern states were still practicing segregation.. Jim Crow was a live and well. More of Gene's professional/ministry history is available in the bio notes connected to the CD "A Light To This World" on the CD Baby site. Gene has been featured on 7 albums to date, to include one with the Rev. Cleveland and the Cleveland Singers " Heaven That Will Be Good Enough" Savoy label, as guest artist on "He Ain't Heavy He's My Brother" Cassietta George "Live", At the Jerusalem Church Of God In Christ. Gene is the featured artist on "The Only Hope" (LIVE) CD together with the renowned Miss Cassietta George (singing "Walk Around Heaven") of the famous Caravans, a Secret records/Light records release. You may see him in performance as a young artist, on a number of TV appearances - as part of the Jubilee Showcase video archives (one show to include Gospel's Queen Albertina Walker and Gene singing a duet) available at the Harold Washington Library- in Chicago Illinois. He is also a featured artist on the video entitled "Cassietta George 48 Years Of Gospel", videoed for (B.E.T NET WORK) the Bobby Jones Show at Miss George's home church, Praises Of Zion Baptist in L.A. California. Gene is also featured on the CD "A Light To This World" available on this site by clicking on the other CD button to the left of this page. "Gene Viale The Early Years", is the CD release of his album "As Unto The Lord". It is comprised of powerful Gospel Solos. Backed by the incomparable Melvin Seals and the Melvin Seals Trio. The sounds range from traditional Gospel to warm jazz flavored ballads. You will note that this album contains a heavily anointed collection of Gospel favorites. From the selections "If You Just Hold Out Until Tomorrow" and "The Only Hope" which remained on the northern California "Gospel" airways for over twenty years to the up-tempoed "How Do You Plan" "Brother Why Don't You Believe" and "Everythings' All Right". The selections on this CD were written by some of Gospel's pioneer writers ie: Dr. Thomas A. Dorsey (the father of Gospel Music), The King Of Gospel, Rev. James Cleveland, Gene's musical mentor and the founder of The Gospel Music Workshop Of America. Minister James Herndon (for a number of years the pianist and a principal writer for the legendary Caravans), Miss Margaret Akins (a frequent writer for Mahalia Jackson) and hymnests, Lois Irwin and Charles Tinley. The world famous Billy Preston and D. Troy are also part of the list of notable writers on this project. As is Mancel Warrick, father of the great Dionne Warrick. This CD is a great CD for those who are not familiar with Gospel Music. For the Gospel music lover it is a must. Whether you enjoy Traditional, Contemporary or Southern Gospel. You will find it a refreshing musical journey, fresh, direct in message, uplifting and totally unique. Gene comes to you with this sharing as only he can.. "The Early Years" sung "As Unto The Lord". Gene is a member in good standing of The Community Baptist Church, Santa Rosa, California. Pastored by the Rev. James E. Coffee DD.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: