A broad mix of folk, country, jazz, blues, and pop from a singer/songwriter whose style reflects everything from his Southern roots upbringing to his current Pacific Northwest life. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (52:37) ! Related styles: FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Folk-Jazz People who are interested in James Taylor Jimmy Buffett Mary Chapin Carpenter should consider this download. Details: Jack Brown writes, sings and plays music that reflects everything from his Mississippi Gulf Coast and New Orleans upbringing to his California stint and his current Idaho environs. He's played big gigs from the New Orleans World's Fair (1984) to opening for Carole King (Idaho, 2004), and small gigs at coffeehouses, bars, churches, and pizza joints. His songwriting style includes popular Nashville format, jazz standard AABA, Seeger ballad, political satire, and folksy storytelling, but can best be defined as something that audiences immediately enjoy and come back for. Jack is on the no-audition-required list for writers' nights at the Bluebird Caf, French Quarter Caf, and Commodore Lounge, all Nashville hot spots.
