Full of delightfully eccentric queer folk music with lyrics ranging from blatantly sexual, to subtle celebrations of daily life to complex nuero-anatomy. This music is not for everyone. But, if you like a cross between Tallulah Bankhead and John Denver.. 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, SPOKEN WORD: Poetry Details: " I just love my Sparkle Pants CD and listen to it whenever I want to lift my spirits and feel sparkly. Jim e is one of a kind, and makes the world a far sexier, happier and better place." Annie Sprinkle, Ph.D.-Prostitute/Porn Star turned Artist/Sexologist Jim e is a San Francisco based creature whose music is is essentially born from poetry. In younger years, he got a BA and MFA in Poetry Writing and taught poetry and performance poetry at the University of Oregon. At this point, music has become more central. Jim e is essentially a lyricist and melody maker. His new CD is a selection from twenty years of work. It includes 13 songs and 2 poems. Friends took care of the musical harmonies and instrumentation, including guitars, banjo, mandolin, harp and the lovely voice of Denise Castleton. Some of the poems and lyrics have appeared in earlier books: Sucking Bananas(his master's thesis) and The Rosebud Diaries(a poetry/photography book devoted to his a as the beloved). The material on the CD reflects various life themes, including spirituality(e.g. Amu, Unconditinal Love), sexuality(e.g. Fk Me Lovingly, The Rosebud Lullabye),nuero-anatomy(Smooth Brain, a Laryngeal Love Song) and often takes on a naughty, tricksterish quality(e.g. the Lord's Wiener). Jim e has been known to perform a capella naked on several occasions, and this CD reflects that quality. Naked before the world with an open heart.
