Dance, ELECTRONIC: Tech-House Details: Micro-Phobic, after living the past few years in the hot Texas desert in search of something, has returned to the music scene with Get Your Butt in Gear. The band members, who wish to remain anonymous because they dont like the paparazzi, said that they consumed large quantities of peyote, tequila, and tacos during their respite in the desert. After months of tripping out, a Gila monster came to them and said, Get Your Butt in Gear, and that is what they did.
