Details: Monroe Crossing is a blend of unique musical backgrounds with one common denominator: the drive and intensity that is unmistakably bluegrass. Named in honor of Bill Monroe, the "Father of Bluegrass," Monroe Crossing performs music from the 1st generation masters, as well as contemporary original songs. Hot pickers? Absolutely! But Monroe Crossing isn't all flash and pizzazz, it's a cohesive, energetic and sincerely entertaining bluegrass gospel ensemble. Our audiences thoroughly love our shows. Why? Because the music, the energy and interaction make it clear we're having an absolute blast. A few classics, a few requests and a version of Friendship's Road with the Heritage Singers. These fifteen songs were recorded live at shows in the end of 2003 and the spring of 2004 as a snapshot of Monroe Crossing on the road. With Art, Lisa, Mark, Matt and Graham Sones on banjo.
