Not Sure About the Importance of Being Able to Control Your Negative Thinking? Let me tell you a little story: One day not long ago, while standing on the corner of a busy street in Philadelphia, talking to a friend, along came an old man. He was a decrepit old man with swollen, tearful eyes, and his unshaven face was drawn and withered. His lips were blue with unclean sores. His toes were pushing through his worn-out shoes. His clothes were torn to rags. He had seen better days. I thought, how dreadfully poverty has gnawed at you. I was stunned for the moment. With a look of sadness, and with a dirty bloated hand thrust forward, he pleaded for a few pennies. He got a few more pennies; I got a little more sense. As I pondered over the circumstances which had caused the deplorable condition of this man, and had left him a wreck in its ruins, I began to think: It might have been you! What happened to this old man? What precipitated his deplorable condition? What caused such poverty? Why had fortune turned into misfortune? His plight may have owed to overindulgence, to grief, to envy, to jealousy, to hatred, to prejudice, to dread, to self-pity, to temptation, or to discouragement. Whatever it was had changed his outlook, his attitude, his process of thinking and his entire pattern of living. Desperation, despair, discouragement, disappointment, sorrow and sadness were indelibly stamped in the lines of his face. He was a picture of his thoughts, a victim of circumstances and a slave to poverty. In analyzing the plight of this old man, I came to the conclusion that his condition was a definite result of that desperate little enemy negative thinking. Negative thinking is a sneaky little enemy which silently steals its way into a mans consciousness and, like a thief at night, steals not his purse, but robs him of that power which makes him poor indeed. It is a sinister and destructive influence that works night and day to prey on a mans soul. It is mans worst enemy, and lifes meanest foe. It is worse than war, and largely the cause of war. It is the curse of the human race. It is as blind to reason as an owl is to light. It turns friends into enemies and enemies into foes. It robs a man of reason. It stirs up hate, greed, selfishness, cynicism, pessimism, anger, suspicion, rivalry, jealousy, revenge, lust and envy. It tears down confidence, undermines health, impairs character and causes poverty. Thats Why the First Step Toward Achieving Success is Understanding How to Rid Yourself of Negative Thinking! There are two kinds of thoughts: positive thoughts which are creative and negative thoughts which are destructive. I often compare positive thoughts to light, and negative thoughts to darkness. Darkness is nothing. It is the absence of light. Turn on the light, and there is no darkness. Negative thoughts of dread, worry, anger, prejudice, jealousy, envy, grudge, stubbornness, impudence, selfishness, cynicism, gloom, hate, despair and discouragement disappear instantly when they meet the positive thoughts of love, faith, consideration, respect, kindness, courage, understanding, persistence, fervence, loyalty, joy, power, plenty, endurance and strength. Think positive thoughts, and the ability can accomplish any desire! The two types of thinking and how to ensure you are using the right type for the situation at hand The close relationship between emotions and your body and what this means in relation to your thoughts! And much, much more! Achieve Success Through Positive Thinking! Whether you attract success or failure really depends on the kind of thoughts that you have. Those who focus their attention on the good qualities that they have and take time to relish in their achievements, no matter how small they are - will inevitably attract success. One fact is clear - in life we will fail more often than we succeed. But those who continue to enjoy success, never give up and always stay focused on success can achieve their dreams. Unfortunately, most people tend to focus their thoughts on what they did wrong, what they failed at, why things didn't work out, why they're not good enough. These negative thoughts are sure to attract failure. If you are one of these negative people, don't get dejected How to Turn Your Ability into Cash contains the advice and information you need to turn things around! You see, you are a conductor for your thoughts. Ability is the power house. Positive thoughts are the current. Negative thoughts are the resistance. Get rid of all negative thoughts. Get rid of resistance. Get rid of all inhibitions, all grudges and all dreads. The ability demonstrates its full power and strength when unhampered, and unencumbered by resistance. Your income, your health, your well-being, your happiness, and your peace of mind are only retarded by permitting the phantoms of negative thinking to set up a resistance to your ability! In How to Turn Your Ability into Cash you will learn how to eliminate negative thinking and how to focus on growing your ability! So How Much is Learning How to Turn Your Ability into Cash Worth to You?
