A whimsical and sometimes soulful eclectic selection of songs full of heavy harmonies that are quasi autobiographical and about life in Upper Valley Vermont all in the style of "The Mormon Tabernacle Smothers Brothers". 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk-Rock, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: I'm a singer songwriter and live with my wife Katie here in Woodstock Vermont. For years I worked as a technician in the field of infra-red detection technology and often found myself at odds - the hours justifying the "good pay" to what was being manufactured out on the production line - as depicted in "Heat Seeker" Then in one of those epiphanal moments, I left the nine to five to reinvent myself as a songwriter. "I'm Movin' On". "Piece Of The Pie" (We will let that song speak for itself) is a whimsical and sometimes soulful eclectic selection of songs full of heavy harmonies and visual imagery that at times can be quasi autobiographical and about life here in the Upper Valley - "Upper Valley Saturday Drive". One song brings me back to the 50s when my father often took me to Red Sox games - however he grew up in New York City and even though we would - root root root for the Red Sox - I think to this day he really was a die hard Yankee's fan and if you remember the Red Sox of the 1950's and 60's you'll get a kick out of the song "Red Sox Remembered". Oh...and my sound? Well ...some say I sound Like the Mormon Tabernacle Smothers Brothers! (That's a good thing) People who are interested in should consider this download.
