David Brake&That Damn Band fuse alternative country-rock and Texas country to come up with a unique sound all their own. The CD Spin Around is a live recording of all new songs. See why so many people are talking about the sound of "Texas y'alternative. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, ROCK: Americana Details: A live show by DAVID BRAKE THAT DAMN BAND is definately a surprise because with every song, you don't know what you're going to get. But this surprise ain't the cheap kind--because whatever it is, you know you're going to like it. Already making big waves in Texas, the energy of their live shows is becoming legendary and is now on CD for the first time. Very few artists ever release a live recording of all new songs (not previously recorded in the studio), and That Damn Band now joins the ranks of those who have. Listen and see why the combination of alternative country rock and Texas country helps the band define it's own genre - Texas y'alternative. David Brake That Damn Band have received airplay on Americana and AAA radio stations all over the country (including XM satellite). The group secured enough votes to gain nominations for Best New Artist in the Houston Press Music Awards 2004 Best Country Western Artist in 2006. The band has also been featured in the Houston Chronicle, and showcased live on Fox News television in both Austin and Houston.
