Imagine the Stone Roses never split up but moved to a surf-shack and recorded lo-fi pop magic when the waves were down. 10 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Quirky Details: "Comes To Us All" is the underground classic debut from the coolest lo-fi magician you've never heard of. DAYBREAKER is Chris Howard mixing baggy beats and swirly tunes into something that's like nothing you ever heard but like everything you ever liked. Combining the British rock and rain-soaked streets of his childhood with the acoustics and sunshine of America's golden west, Chris creates power-pop driven psychedelic symphonies that free your mind and make you groove. DAYBREAKER has been played on XFM by Claire Sturgess and Shaun Keaveny, has enjoyed success on both the Garage Band and Vitaminic charts and is rumored to be very big in Montana. The 2005 release "As if by Magic" has sold well through CDBABY as well as iTunes and other download sites. Chris is one of the friendliest people you could hope to meet. He hopes you will listen to the tunes, send an email, order a CD or check out a gig.
