Straight-ahead melodic/indie rock, an emotional psychosis 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Emo, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Dizzy Lilacs Bio "One of the most original bands to hit the music scene in recent years". Hailed by critics and fans, Dizzy Lilacs hard hitting, melodic style is refreshingly new, and intelligent. Dizzy Lilacs founded in sunny Ventura County, California, as a three piece power band without the garage band sound. Each of the members have completely different influences which is the success of their original sound. The influences range from rock to jazz. In turn, concludes the final product, straight ahead, melodic/indie rock, an emotional psychosis. The members of Dizzy Lilacs consist of Paul Hoagland on drums, and percussion. Mark Van Fleet on bass and vocals, and Damon Tidwell on guitars. Their blend of different influences bring about a strong sense of versatility and flexibility in songwriting and arrangement. With all of that in mind, they bring a powerful, energetic live performance, definitely worthy of recollection. Playing venues from San Francisco to San Diego, Hollywood to Las Vegas, the Dizzy Lilacs mainstay right now is in the Los Angeles and Hollywood area, but are working on shows to the Eastern coast, Central and Southern States included. The ambitious nature of the Dizzy Lilacs will put you in awestruck. Dizzy Lilacs manage to keep the ball rolling in their court. Currently, Dizzy Lilacs are having regular rotation on the Kaleidoscope Show, featured on the American Radio Network(ARN), which has been airing since 1968, and broadcasting nationwide, across the globe, including London, England.
