Bio: Originally from Kingston, New York (Upstate NY) DYMEZ began rapping at the age of 14 at a local talent show. DYMEZ then joined a group known as L.I.A.S.O.N. Moreover, after many shows at their local high school, the group was given the opportunity to perform at a local Club in Boston, Massachusetts. After creating a name locally, DYMEZ ventured into the West Coast and began producing with Producer/ Engineer PLEX (originally from St. Louis) in a Bay Area studio. After creating six underground albums, DYMEZ made a trip back to New York to promote the music created by himself and PLEX in 2002. During this visit back to New York, DYMEZ hooked up with various artist out of New York and they produced, "The Coalition", who then released a compilation album. The album created buzz throughout the whole Tri-state area and kept DYMEZ name alive in New York. DYMEZ is presently signed with, MI Records, A Independent Label based out of California. DYMEZ is poised to release his most dazzling array of lyrical rhymes. Set against some of the hottest beats to flow out of California, Make Em Crazy and Its Going Down, are two hot singles sure to get the clubs poppin, the radio droppin, and retailers clockin.
