Details: "Genteel" is the title of Italian guitarist Giacomo Fiore's latest recording, released on March 19, 2009. The music is meant to chronicle Giacomo's evolution as a performer, ranging across different genres, styles, and countries over a period of 400 years. It incorporates elements of his fingerstyle beginnings, a revisitation of an original composition, and examples of his studies as a classical guitarist under the guidance of teachers such as David Tanenbaum and Muriel Anderson. After four years in Nashville, TN, Giacomo is currently studying, performing, and living in the SF Bay Area.
