The title song, There But For Fortune, was written in the 60s by folk artist Phil Ochs. Forty years later its still relevant. Greg avoids being overly preachy or judgmental. As one fan said about the song Last Letter Home, you never say youre against the war but its clear you are. Here are some other UNSOLICITED comments about the CD from other musicians: Really proud you let me be part of it. I know someone who would really like your album so I'd like to buy one as a gift for them. Well to start, I love the song! Absolutely my favorite kind of tune, melodic, great lyrics, a real nice song Greg. First I have to tell you that I love this tune! What a brilliant lyric. The uplifting feel really counter balances the gravity of the theme. The song 'Last Letter Home' will be featured on the upcoming Acoustic Rainbow release. Check out gregmaddenonlinefor information.
