The net plays a big part in his life. He creates and distributes music related software, videos and music through those magical wires. The album First Chance I Get Im Out Of Here was made in his garden shed as a kind of midlife-crisis present to is mates. While they were all having theirs in the real world John figured hed have his on CD. His buddy, Martin Grech (who you may remember as the guy who sounded like a choir boy on the Lexus ad a couple of years back) features on a couple of the tracks, providing vocals and additional guitar. John also hijacked friends and neighbours to play a bit of guitar here and there.
