This CD is a widespanning album of instrumentals, poems, and songs. It is a science fiction epic that picks up where the 21st century leaves off. It is a travelogue of things that can be tasted but never touched. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: I have loved you from the first time we met. If we have'nt met yet, it really doesn't matter. I didn't say any of this so that you would say, "I love you too Shawn". I think we're past that. However, once you yourself take a trip through The Neon Gate, you may do a lot of things you hadn't considered before. I'ts alright, all in time. Now I realize this is a bio, But I really feel like we're beyond that stage. I wont bore you with all the details, the where, the when, the "it all started...", I'll never talk about ex-lovers. And YOU don't have to either. It's all behind us. You just say what you need to. when you need to. I've smoked weed too. 5-4-3-2. love shawnkilroy.com
