Rainbow suicide Im gonna love you, for the rest of my life / short as that may be / It would be, much more impressive to love you that long if I hadnt swallowed those pills / Im gonna dance with the rainbows / as I lie on my back / I could have told you Im leaving, you on your own / I just dont like goodbyes / No I dont want to embarrass you in front of them / but hey, what where they in my life? / Im gonna dance with the rainbows / as I lie on my back / There is no suicide letter for you to read, youd just read in to it / like you always do / But Im gonna love you, for the rest of my life / I just thought that you should know / Im gonna dance with the rainbows / as I become rain to you, / You wont blow this cloud away / Im gonna dance with the rainbows 2. Another day You dont call

/ you dont write / you dont tell me youre alright / and I tell myself / "Its just another day" / I can't know what to say when theres no one near to hear / All the things Ive longed to tell you since youre gone / With out you / ITS NOT WORTH BREATHING / its not worth feeling / Its not worth living / I dont own / anything / that can comfort me right now / this house is just a place to watch the rain / and tonight / when I cry / until its 8:00 am, then I can say "its just another day" / With out you / ITS NOT WORTH BREATHING / its not worth feeling / Its not worth living

Reek of her it's been a little while, since I could look in to your eyes / Its been a little while, since I felt so alone / I hate to see you smile, when youre walking away from me / When I say that I want you I mean that I need you still / know I'm not lying / though I have and you know that I probably always will / It will take a little time, to get your thoughts out of my mind / when every thing you said, is standing right next to me / its hard now that I know, what Ive dreamed of will never be / When I say that I want you I mean that I need you still / I am not lying / though I have and you know that I probably always will / I'm not lying / though I have and you know that I probably always...

I saw this girl she looked so like you / on my way home today / I spent time alone in my car just to reek of her / from what Ive seen / to what Ive / known / its always you / youre what I know / when I say that I want you I mean that I need you / when I say that I want you I mean that I need you / when I say that I want you / please know I need you still / I am not lying / no I'm not lying / Im not lying /

No 4. Surreal I could have been what you need / you could have been with me / I think about it every time we meet / oh - you could have been with me / I start my coffee black / since youre not coming back / then I pour in sweet cream to make my life taste good / like you said I would / youve been with me, like the strike of every spark / youre still real to me / you have left to leave a mark / The air that I breath is chocking me / Youre so real to me / What have I left to say? / As someone left this way? / The key to my own heart has refused to lock / Still loving you is such a crock / Be with me, like the strike of every spark / Youre so real to me, you have left to leave a mark / The air that I breath is chocking me / Youre so real to me / Oh I could have been just what you need / but you wouldn't change anything / I will not count the cost / I refuse to count you lost / Do you feel it I am holding the time we gave / To digging our final grave / Can you feel me, run my fingers through your hair / Youre so real to me, like a sorrow in the air / the air that I breath is chocking me / Youre so real to me / You're surreal so so real / You're surreal so so real / You're still so real to me with me anymore / Cause Im walking through that door, silent in the end / You turn down my favorite music, and you say Do WE have to listen to this? again / Then you ask me if I love you, and I say that I do / Its true / So true / I love you. / What I didnt say, is that Im not ok / What I didnt say, is that you dont get to play / with me anymore / Cause Im walking through that door, silent in the end / I traded every other way of finding happiness for one good day with you / Then what I got, left me in shock / it goes without saying What I didnt say, is that Im not ok / What I didnt say, is that you dont get to play with me anymore / Cause Im walking through that door / What I didnt say, is that Im not ok / What I didnt say, is that you dont get to play with me anymore / Cause Im walking through that door, silent in the end / What I didnt say, is that Im not ok / What I didnt say 10. U Wouldn't Change I wanted to tuck you in at night, I wanted to hold you in my arms / Do you know how it feels / you wouldnt change a thing / I wanted to tuck you in at night, I wanted to hold you in my arms / Do you know what it means / you wouldnt change a thing / Even in my hands I hold the ring / as I walk Im stumbling / I didnt rub pepper in my eyes / I dont need an excuse to cry / Now that I am standing in the ash / of summer picnics that just dont last / I just wanted to hold your hand / not pieces of gravel in the sand / I wanted to tuck you in at night, I wanted to hold you in my arms / Do you know how it feels / you wouldnt change a thing / I wanted to tuck you in at night, I wanted to hold you in my arms / Do you know what it means / you wouldnt change a thing, now darling Even in my hands Im holding back / laughing at my self and that / Windows on the ceiling speak to me / showing visions of what will never be / When alone in the darkness I find / you are always, always on my mind / Help is a friend that I dont know / Your hugs a distant summer snow / I wanted to tuck you in at night, I wanted to hold you in my arms / Do you know what it means / you wouldnt change a thing / I wanted to tuck you in
