KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: This project was actually conceived by a four-and-a-half year old girl named Meeka Saragina. After years of watching her father singing and recording in his home studio, she asked to make her own tape. The result...Four albums sung entirely by kids. At eight-years-old, Meeka was the youngest artist to ever sign a recording contract with Youngheart Music. Her cousins who sing on these songs come from a wide range of ethnic backgrounds and ages, from one-and-a-half to nine years old. Besides being educational and instilled with a gentle morality, this is downright fun and exciting for both children and adults!! Co-written and co-produced by Meeka and her father, Art Halperin, these unique songs blend Caribbean-style rhythms and melodies with up-beat pop music. Art is a professional musician and award-winning-composer who has toured throughout the world and has written and recorded for a variety of national and international projects. 1997 Parents Choice Award, 1998 Childrens Music Web Award, 1998 USA Songwriting Competition Best Childrens Song, 1999 ASCAP Songwriters Award, 2002 Childrens Music Web Award ...What the critics say...
