This debut album from a superb singer songwriter has produced many covers for other well known artists. Stan's excellent songs have a real honest feel to them and as always his warm strong vocals are backed by some superb Scottish musicians. Listen to son 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: These Are My Dreams is Stans first Studio Album, recorded just as he was leaving the Army in 1991. It has been extremely successful, with well over half of the songs being covered by other artists world wide. The title track won the converted Keith Marsden Song Writing Competition in 2000 and has just been recorded by Martyn Wyndham-Read. Other tracks from this album have been recorded by well known artists in Australia, France, Norway and the United States. Skilfully produced by Kenny Speirs, the album contains a number of his classic songs including Alice, Days Like These, These Are My Dreams, Across the Sea, Monuments Of Stone and A Soldiers Goodbye. With superb arrangement and accompaniment from a host of top musicians including Stewart Hardy on Fiddle, Iain Lothian on Accordion and Tommy Roseburgh on Piano, this is an album you will play over and over again and well worth adding to your collection.
