Alternative Rock/Pop, and just good music. 6 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Beatles-pop

Details: The Last Word is an all original, four-piece alternative rock act based out of Spokane Wa. Known as a highly evolved group, they draw heavily from their influences who range from The Beatles, Goo Goo Dolls, Gin Blossoms, Tom Petty and the like. Led by award-winning singer/songwriter Jerad Finck, they have a mainstream harmony driven feel that almost anybody can relate to. Jerad formed the group around five years ago, and while it has had an abundance of members they finally have formed the solid core that will be The Last Word for the coming years. It consists of Jerad Finck who writes the music, plays rhythm guitar and sings lead, Tom Ryan playing lead guitar and backup vocals, Tony Mackie playing Bass Guitar and singing back up, and finally Aaron Mathieson who wields the drums. They have played shows in and around Spokane, and crowd turnout and reaction is always great, however they focused mainly on perfecting their craft and recording demos to get out around the world existing on an underground level here in Spokane. Their hard work paid off as producers began calling from around the United States. They finally chose to work with Scott Mathews, whom is a grammy winning producer that has worked with the likes of The Beach Boys, Johnny Cash, Eric Clapton, Elvis Costello, Ringo Starr, and Keith Richards just to name a few. It was an experience to say the least. Now after just finishing their self-titled six song EP, they are getting ready for the final push. Already labels are interested, and all we can say is that this surely isn't the last word from this promising group.
