Details: "Two" is a magical recording that touches your heart, almost as if Yuiko and Alejandra were singing for you and with you. They whisper to your ear like a soft breeze... Alejandra's voice plays with the sound of Yuiko's piano, and at times it gives the impression that the piano is also singing. -Marta Gomez (Billboard Nominee) "The music on Two is a lovely collaboration from two women, Yuiko Goto from Japan and Alejandra Ortiz from Columbia. These ladies found a beautiful passive style that carries on from one tune to the next. There is a light transparent quality to Alejandra's singing and the rolling piano style of Yuiko is matched to it." -Jamey Haddad (Simon and Garfunkel, Carly Simon) Pianist Yuiko Goto and vocalist/percussionist Alejandra Ortiz demonstrate how two musicians with different backgrounds can unite to form an extraordinary musical connection. On their first recorded collaboration "Two", Goto and Ortiz perfectly complement each other's melodic and rhythmic sensibilities. Goto provides rich harmonic beds for Ortiz's lush voice and Ortiz's phrasing inspires Goto's improvised embellishments around the melodies. The catalyst for the musical synergy on Two is the eclectic compositions. Goto's stylistically anomalous songs fuse elements from a variety of genres: the motific development of classical music, the interaction of jazz and the rhythms of Brazilian music. On this impressive debut, Goto and Ortiz tell a story through music instead of words, and invite the listener to hear an intimate conversation in the language of music.  "La musica de "Two" es una encantadora colaboracion de dos maravillosas mujeres: Yuiko Goto de Japon y Alejandra Ortiz de Colombia. Juntas, esta pianista y cantante han desarrollado un estilo que envuelve al escucha con su fluir hermoso y tranquilo de una cancion a otra. La voz de Alejandra es iluminada y transparente y Yuiko se acopla a ella con su estilo fluido y elocuente".

-Jamey Haddad (Simon Garfunkel). Yuiko Goto y Alejandra Ortiz demuestran como dos musicas con diferentes backgrounds pueden crear una extraordinaria conexi? musical. En su primer disco juntas, Goto y Ortiz se complementan a la perfeccion. Yuiko Goto provee ricas capas armonicas para la voz fresca y suave de Alejandra Ortiz, quien a su vez inspira con su fraseo la improvisacion de Goto en el piano. Las eclecticas composiciones de Goto son el catalizador de la energia musical que mueve este disco. Sus canciones son muy diversas estilisticamente, siendo el resultado de fusionar una variedad de generos. Estan presentes aqui el desarrollo tematico de la musica clasica, la interaccion del jazz y los ritmos de la musica brasilera. En este debut memorable, Alejandra Ortiz y Yuiko Goto cuentan una historia a traves de la musica, con sonidos en vez de palabras e invitan al escucha a oir una inspirada conversacion intima.
