Kristin Lehman is one of the most talented concert pianists that David Chabrier has ever heard. And David is one of the finest vocalists that Kristin has heard. But when she is asked at the last minute to fill in as his accompanist for a local concert, Kristin is not sure if she is flattered or insulted. Her destiny is the concert stage, not to play for a singer, no matter how fine. Yet the two are attracted to each other instantly, but continue to fight the urge to see each other because of professional commitments and touring. Interfering managers do not help the situation. Somehow they must find a way to carve a life with each other in spite of--or because of--their amazing musical talents...Author: Compton, Dorothy Publisher: Awe-Struck E-Books, Inc.
