Dear Friend, If you have been marketing online for a while, you should know how important it is to have unique content on your website to bring traffic from the search engines. The mighty Google has been implementing its duplicate filter for a few years now and consequently resulted in a severe drop in traffic and sales for many online marketers who were used to publish duplicate articles on their websites. If you are one of them, you have surely opted for the 2 solutions below to bring back your business on the track: (1) Do it yourself. Spend hours writing your own original content. (2) Outsource it. Invest huge amounts of money in hiring ghostwriters at $7 - $25 per article. No doubt... These 2 strategies works very well if you want to get back your rankings in Google but there are also many cons associated to them: Huge upfront costs if you opt for ghostwriters and your return on investment may be very long. Wasting hundreds of hours to write your own content while you could use this time to focus on more important aspects of your business to get more money. But here's the good news... Introducing Article Buzz... Article Buzz is a simple desktop application that will help you spin and create unique content based on some seed articles on the fly.
