From minimalist acoustic strums to dynamite guitar dynamics, Austin outfit astroblast offer up 10 tracks of indiepop-meets-spacerock with sweetly ethereal female vocals. Blending a collective lifetime of talent. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Noise, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: A noise-pop band from Austin, TX, the current incarnation of Astroblast originally started as a joint venture between two bands sharing practice space outside of Waco, TX in 1995. After exhausting their student loans and discovering that most of their time was spent in Austin anyways, the band made the move down I-35 in 1998. Blending a collective lifetime of talent, this four-piece creates melodies by extracting a unique flavor of pop from seemingly random noise and combining that distilled sound with innovative songwriting born out of each band-member's unique and varied musical tastes. Influences include such artists as: The Pixies, Link Wray, Swervedriver, Yo La Tengo and the sweet melodies of the ice cream truck. Astroblast is currently looking for label representation / distribution / management. jenn vocals and keyboards bob lead guitar chris bass jacob drums
