Details: Burden The Hand A collection of 7 songs about the state of things. Mine, yours everyone in between. These songs comprise Bailey's first release since moving to the west coast. Burden The Hand was recorded somewhere between the sleepy beaches of Ventura, California and the bright lights of Hollywood. Moving songs about moving on. This soulful presentation is sparse but not spare. Bailey calls upon his vintage blues and folk influences to craft an album that is sure to resonate listeners. A mostly acoustic venture, all parts were performed and recorded by Bailey. Again pulling-off his signature "living room" intimacy. Even though all parts were played by one man - it sounds as though there are several musicians sitting in a circle, laying down the vibe. Fresh yet familiar delivery with a timeless approach.
