upfront, aggressive, dancefloor drum n' bass from midwest live pa stalwarts...in the vein of metalheadz, fullcycle and other labels... 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Drum 'n Bass/Jungle, ELECTRONIC: Dance

Details: Known most prominently for co-founding and producing the nationally known live five man drum and bass phenom Twilightsleep, and recently the two man live PA, Voigt-Kampff, these two veteran producers have begun to perk the ears of national and international dj's, labels, and producers with their latest brand of live, dark, rolling drum and bass. Having been working, performing, and producing together for over 10 years, Beet and Bad Lieutenant are no strangers to the breakbeat. In January 2002, the two (as Voigt-Kampff) found themselves on tour with Biotic/xxx records figureheads Facs and B Key. They have since amazed club goers and party attendees alike with their live and aggressive musical performances, thanks in part to the backing of some of the area's best musicians. So contagious is their live performance that they have been known at times to virtually upstage other headliners. With their unique brand of live drum and bass making waves stateside, the two have taken a back-to-basics approach to the recording process for their highly anticipated 5-track CD EP slated for release early 2004. Drawing upon their profieency with varied musical instruments, such as guitar, bass, percussion, drums, and keyboards to emulate electronically-based music, the EP is a representation of their signature style of sequenced and live production. To achieve this symbiosis of live and sequenced music in a performance setting, Beet and Bad Lieutenant have been backed by members of their Replicant Ensemble since 1998. Masters of the craft of conducting and producing their live performances, they bring a refreshing, edgy, and invigorating dimension to the status quo.
