Details: At the age of twelve, Devin Ray, also known as DRay Sonshine, began writing songs and movie scripts as a hobby. Now at the age of twenty-two, DRay is ready to take the lead in the music industry with his unpredictable style and excellent stage presence. Born to two musically gifted parents, DRays talents prove to be no coincidence. He uses his eclectic style to showcase his musical background through various genres such as R&B, Hip-Hop and even Pop. With talents that are easily compared to well-known artists Usher and Genuine, DRay uses his soulful melodies to incorporate captivating stories through upbeat songs about life and love to mesmerize the audience. As for his aspirations, DRay hopes to gain the attention of major labels that will sky rocket his career into the limelight. As an artist, he wants to leave an impression of a man who was a great song writer, performer, and trend setter. DRays first single, Ay Mama, is a definite club banger that displays a fresh and entertaining style accompanied by tremendous songwriting skills. His album The Reflection released spring 2009 features Ay Mama along with other titles such as Auto Tuned, Outer Space, Superhero, and Go, Get Out.
