John Lester's second studio CD will be officially released later this year. The CD features John on vocals and a cache of instruments: acoustic guitar, upright bass, 6-string fretless electric bass, 5-string electric bass, and acoustic bass guitar. The songs are presented in a band format with sidemen from John's home town San Francisco including Paulo Baldi on percussion, Steve Rossi on drums, and Bob Johnson on sax. Also featured from London is Theo Travis on sax and flute and from Amsterdam, pianist Bas Van Lier. The songs move effortlessly through a range of emotions: romantic love songs, whimsical tales of John's travels in Europe, self-reflective ballads, and a thought-provoking perspective on the War on Terror politics. Three award-winning songs are included in this collection: Both a Blessing and a Curse Song of the Year NCSA So Many Reasons Best Jazz Song WSA Beware La Merde Best Humorous Song WSA
