A couple of secular tunes thrown in cause The Lord likes to have fun too. 15 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: Lost Then Found is made up of four guys that used to be night club musicians that met at church and started singing the first time they met. Warren Seaburg is the leader of the group and plays acoustic and electric guitars. He has been an entertainer in the Virginia Beach region since 1985 and still performs a solo gig on the oceanfront every summer. Known for his sense of humor and versatility on the guitar he is the natural front person for the group. Warren is also the songwriter for the original songs featured on this CD. Loyd Bohlinger is the drummer and has played in more bands than you can shake a stick at! Warren and Loyd performed in the clubs together for three years prior to Lost Then Found. Dave Edwards holds down the bottom end on the bass guitar. He started out on guitar and decided to learn bass when the previous bass player went off to college. Although everybody sings, Dave is the crooner of the group. Ron Parker plays harmonica and light percussion. He has performed with many great blues bands on the harp and achieved excellence thanks to his "retired" status. All he does is practice and attend harmonica seminars. Together these guys have a lot of fun trying to get people to categorize the band. This CD features a variety of different styles of music that still doesn't touch upon all of the styles that they are capable of. Sample and enjoy! Buy one for a friend, too!
