Details: "Nicola Boschetti is a wonderful Italian fingerstyle player whose melodic lyricism makes nylon strings sparkle." John Morgan, american acoustic guitarist. "Cos lontano". "It is an Aimee weekend. I am all alone. I am happy within but something is missing. The one thing I wish most of. Love. Where did it go? Did I already pass it up? I am at the park. I walk along the riverside. The wind is blowing through my flowing hair. I am at peace as I think of nothing. The day is beautiful. But I am still longing for that touch, that kiss, the warmth. It seems so distant so far away yet the river keeps flowing. My heart keeps pouring out kindness to no one".

Interpretation for Cos lontano by Aimee Martini Sposito, american friend fan. "Soft acoustic inputs of lyrism, expressive sense and narrative sense emerge from Nicola Boschetti's recording for guitar solo. The streams of Boschetti's turn of phrase insinuate themselves with graceful skill and unfold with cohesion little by little instilling emotions and giving life to well modulated narrative structures..." Giordano Selini, journalist and musical critic.
