Details: Flutist/Pianist has new CD release Together at last, flute piano recorded by the same performer, Toronto musician Susan Piltch, on a CD of classical music. Her own composition, Out of the Shadows, is the title tune, inspired by a comment made to her about coming out of the shadows and into the spotlight. Music on the CD includes Rachmaninoff's famous Vocalise, Schumann's Three Romances, Purcell's Air Hornpipe, a Sonata by Herbert Murrill. Contemporary melodic music includes compositions by Ben Steinberg, Bernard Piltch, Stephen Richards, Oliver Schroer, Robert Fleming. Three of Susan's compositions are on this recording. A mix of classical, contemporary and original music. "Susan's brilliant new album explores beautiful original and classical repertoire while sharing magical moments of growing up in an illustrious musical family. I love your CD. The flute draws me in so deep that I forget that you are also playing piano. Upon remembering, I am always astounded." [Ron Korb, flutist] "I am enchanted by the selections which were chosen, and very impressed by your gorgeous tone. It reminds me of James Galway in its sweetness, warmth and variety of tone colour. I particularly love the "Out of the Shadows" and the Romance #2 from op. 94, by Schumann, and of course, the Rachmaninov Vocalise. Your work was obviously a labour of love of music and love of family." [Jan Szot, violinist]
