Genre-busting classical, avant garde, Mozart Dvorak juxtaposed with Zepellin Radiohead 5 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Chamber Music, AVANT GARDE: Classical Avant-Garde Show all album songs: Live From The Aspen Music Festival Songs Details: Devoted to expanding the repertoire for string quintet and commissioning new works, the Sybarite Chamber Players break down conventional musical boundaries to boldly step forward into a new genre of chamber music. Juxtaposing the likes of Stravinsky with Radiohead or Mozart with Led Zeppelin, the Sybarite Chamber Players are considered one of the most versatile ensembles of its kind, nimbly programming the most fresh and daunting combinations of music styles. The Sybarite Chamber Players has appeared numerous times at the Aspen Music Festival and on the LaSalle concert series in Cincinnati as well as on Classical Thursdays concert series at Time Warner Center in Manhattan. Members of the group have performed with some of the finest ensembles here and abroad including the Metropolitan Opera, Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra, Pittsburgh Symphony, Elektra Chamber Players, New World Symphony, and IRIS Chamber Orchestra. With a driving force paralleled by few, the Sybarite ensemble adroitly manipulates musical styles and genres to challenge the way classical chamber music is presented today. The Sybarite Chamber Players are an non-profit arts organization based in Manhattan and continues to perform at the Aspen Music Festival, pioneering groundbreaking performances of the old and the new.
