At the age of 9 he already demonstrated his curiosity for music and passion to entertain. At the age of 10, he and his family would make their way to San Francisco, California. In the mission District his struggle begins in search of the American Dream. Determine to reach his goals, his dreams will not be denied. Trucho G waits much more advancement in his career along with the advancement of this young Urban Latino Movement. Trucho G has recorded three albums, the first in 2001 titled The Struggle Begins and a second in 2004 called What That Sound Like. In 2006, Trucho unites many of the Urban Latino Artist in the Bay Area to Produce Caliton, the MixTape with a special guest feature by Puerto Ricans Julio Voltio. A Tattoo of the Shield of El Salvador, Truchos home, is displayed on his arm as a sign of pride. This also influenced everyone to call him Salvatrucho, which later was transformed into Trucho G. A born Artist, Trucho writes and produces all of his own Music. His unique style of Latin Hip Hop Reggaeton, coupled with the Bay Areas Hyphy Hip Hop movement, separate Trucho from the masses. Trucho G forms part of this great movement with which many Urban Latinos identify with. The Music speaks of sorrow, fear, defeat and victory along with the Day to Day Struggles of Life. Music that will stand the test of time!.
