Details: It all started at the age of 7 when she was the youngest person ever to be admitted into the McGill University Voice program. At 8 years old, she was the youngest performer to appear on the television show 'DECIBEL', hosted by Natalie Simard and viewed by over one million people... By the time she was 9, she had already recorded her first full length gospel CD. At 10 years old she was doing vocal sessions for the hit childrens TV series CAILLOU, broadcast on the PBS network in the US and syndicated around the world. She also performed on other television shows, and commercials, and a year later was recruited by the CIRQUE DU SOLEIL as lead singer for QUIDAM. Now, having just turned 18, she has written and recorded her own songs and has just released her first solo album with contributions from award winning artists such as Bob Hartman, Ange E. Curcio, Marco Minnemann, Horacio 'El Negro' Hernandez and Michael Barbiero. Tags: pop
