A fusion of new age, Irish and classical styles with piano and electronic instruments, great for relaxing, enjoying a romantic evening, and forming the soundtrack of your life. 14 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Contemporary Instrumental, NEW AGE: Celtic New Age Details: Adam Bray studied music first at Covenant College in Chattanooga, and then Clayton College outside Atlanta, although he never completed a degree in music. Instead, he graduated with a degree in environmental biology and went on to work with chimpanzees, bonobos and orangutans, including Kanzi and Panbanishaknown internationally for their language abilities. Adams early musical influence included the likes of Enya, Yanni, John Williams and Danny Elfman. He is frequently inspired by the beauty of Gods creation as he has traveled the globe on many adventures. His current album was written during travels through the Sonoran desert, camping in the Michigan woods, sleeping in the tower on Lookout Mountain, strolls through the villages of Northern Ireland, tramping Abel Tasman in New Zealand, and getting lost all over Asia. Adams music is light yet contemplative, relaxing yet at times stirring the soul. Hes a master of melody and counterpoint.
