Guided by a romantic, from classic and prog rock (!) influenced piano keyboard music and the unique scripted Angelprayers printed in the enclosed bilingual (german/english) CD booklet, youll soon leave stress and hectic behind! Viennese pianist/composer Gerald Krampf formed this project together with his late wife and lyricist Hilde in 2001, with the idea in mind to create a dyade of a certain esoteric theme which is revealed both through with his instrumental music and the scripted poetry of his wife, suitable for therapeutic/healing means as well as just for everyone who is in the mood for dreaming and relaxing. Sadly Hilde Krampf passed away in summer 2002 due to a cancer disease, shes greatly missed! THE MUSIC - by Gerald Krampf: Is widely to describe as meditative New Age piano keyboard music, though there are also many influences from the Viennese classic as well as even many prog rock elements. This is because of Gerald Krampfs past as the band leader and keyboarder of the former Austrian symphonic rock bands "Kyrie Eleison" and "Indigo", and of his classical piano education in his youth. The strong meditative/healing character of his music comes from his yearlong practice with Reiki (master degree), Runes and Meditation. THE POETRY - by Hilde Krampf (1956 - 2002): They are Angelprayers of esoteric influenced origin which were scripted in summer 2001 just before her disease began. They are very personally revealed through with Hildes own imagination and scripted in her very unique style. Besides her writings, which builded the frames for Gerald's music, Hilde also practiced Reiki, Huna, and worked with stones and blossoms. So the project is on one hand well suited for a ghostly, in esoteric interested audience, but will surely also attract all lovers of romantic and imaginative music poems aside the usual who like f.e. David Lanz, Rick Wakeman, Kitaro etc. Each set contains CD + BOOK!
