Spiritual Lyrics set to a mainstream Pop/Rock feel 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: In a day and time when truth is quickly becoming obsolete, there is still a remnant that fearlessly declares it. Meet Camila Aguilar, a refreshing sound, compelled to testify. Brought up in a home that was filled with music, Camila showed signs of an exceptional musical gift very early in her childhood. Accompanied by her mother, she started performing and singing at the age of five in various talent competitions, musicals and in the church. These experiences culminated with holding lead roles in several professional musicals and theatre shows. Naturally, there was only one thing her heart cried out for more. Camila attended Berklee College of Music in Boston, Massachusetts, the top contemporary music college in the world, from where she graduated in 2004. A melting pot of musical styles, Berklee enabled Camila to hone her craft and to begin the discovery of her artistry. She met her husband, producer Daniel Aguilar, at Berklee Christian Fellowship, while attending school. Together, they trained worship teams and led worship at several different churches, and led worship at massive student gatherings, in the Boston area. It was during this season that Camila began to write song after song, as the desire to record was being birthed in her heart. Two and a half years in the making, Camila's first solo album, Compelled, is a labor of love, expressed from her heart. Ranging in color, this album offers a beautiful tapestry of lyric, content, melody, groove and most importantly, passion. Listeners can expect a sincere worship experience, coupled with genius production and first-rate musicianship. Setting it apart from the average albums released these days, an array of the industry's finest come together to bless this project, such as: Abraham Laboriel Sr., Paul Jackson Jr., Vinnie Colaiuta, Alex Acuña, George Doering, Carlos Murguía, and Carlin Muccular. Camila was also privileged to work with several-time Grammy winner, Benny Faccone on this project. This is real music by real people, for real people. Camila's heart for her album is that it would bring all who hear it, closer to the Lord. Her desire is that deep and explosive passion for worship would be ignited in your heart and that you would get lost in the love of God. She prays that hearts would be healed and mended as the presence of Christ is released! She desires to bring a new sound to the church and to bring the love of Christ into the mainstream as well. Camilas greatest longing is that you would be totally set on fire for God, as she has been, and that you would join her in passionately pursuing Him.
