'Alternative Ragtime' deems one reviewer... 'Gypsy Lounge Jazz' says another. "Anderson borrows elements from traditional jazz and western swing as well as his own palette of film music styles to create a sound all his own". 13 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Weird Jazz, JAZZ: Ragtime Details: * "Anderson is a river of genius from which I can not see the other side" - Grammy winner Dave Alvin. * "Multi-layered, intelligent writing - at one moment thought provoking bittersweet, the next off beat uniquely humorous" - film composer David Raksin * "Broad in scope yet focused in craft, Anderson paints a series of vivid pictures: each complete of themselves, stirring provocative as a group" - Frank Zappa pianist Tommy Marris * "Anderson displays the sort of musical substance you'd expect to find in the likes of a Mozart, Basie, Goodman, Ellington or Wills" - Music Connection, Jana Pendragon Award winning film TV composer Chris Anderson has had successes in every arena of his composing career. His 30+ film scores range from full orchestral scores to roots swing to avant jazz and pop. Equally at home with an orchestra, a funk band or a Javanese Gamelan, Anderson is a proven musical chameleon. In addition to his film television credits, Chris is an adept multi-instrumentalist and producer for many Americana-roots projects. Well known throughout the scene as 'Whitey', he has been a featured guest artist for Grammy winner Dave Alvin, Rosie Florez, Big Sandy His Fly-Rite Boys, as well as his own side-project, 'The Lucky Stars', with whom he has two CDs. He has produced several indie releases, including his own 'Sepiatone', an original CD of his eclectic instrumentals.
