Contemporary/Traditional Gospel 11 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Here comes another singing sensation from the south--Gerald Fitts, born in Allendale, South Carolina and spent six years of his life in New Jersey where his talent began to mature. Afterwards, he moved back to South Carolina where he presently resides. Gerald feels like this is where gospel music lives. He grew up listening to traditional and contemporary quartet music. He has patterned his style often compared to Melvin and Doug Williams of the sensational Williams Brothers. Gerald is a talented musician, singer and songwriter. He wrote, performed and played most instruments on every track of the CD. It's another step forward, indeed, for a career that is just beginning and will endure many years of success in the gospel music industry. Executive producer, Johnny Moore, says "We look forward to traveling around the country and gaining a new audience and a new sound to contemporary and traditional gospel music."
