New, solid, funny; from the heart and includes ballad, rock, pop, even techno. Took 6 years. 14 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Band Bio: 1. Green Light Go is currently comprised of - Kamuela Kahoano // Ikaika Kahoano (Backup band - drums/bass/lead guitar - performs when necessary). Kamuela: 26 years old, Graduated from Iolani High School and the University of Hawaii at Manoa with a degree in Music Composition. Repitore includes several symphonic movements (for full orchestra), choral and chamber works and over 100 fully composed, arranged and cataloged songs of various genres. Performance experience has varied from five part a capella to solo ukulele to full band (rock). Choral/vocal experience includes Honolulu Symphony Choir and the University Chamber singers ensemble. Credits include: Green Light Go production, Producer, Arranger, Composer, Performer (guitar and vocals), Teacher (private lessons, ukulele, vocal and piano), Studio Engineer, Artist (all mediums), PR rep (private). I am also a wedding singer and private party performer (usually dinners - solo). I have a small cozy performance setup and I own my own professional recording studio. Band credits include: Ano, Green Light Go. Instruments: ukulele, guitar, piano, bass and the congas (or dejembe). Ikaika: 28 years old, Graduated from Iolani High School, and premed at UH Manoa (received a Bachelors of Science), now in Medical School in Washington D.C. Credits include: Vocalist, Songwriter, Making the Band, season one (ABC TV show), appearance on the Rosie O'Donald Show and various other TV and radio interviews, LMNT national tour with teen people magazine, acting in two independant, full-length films. Band credits include Ano, O-Town, LMNT and Green Light Go. Intro: To whom it may concern: Green Light Go, the CD is a 14 track, 6 year in the making compilation of alternative, rock, emo, pop, island, easy listening, hawaiian and techno songs. All songs (execpt Don't Know Why) were composed, written, performed, arranged, recorded, mixed, and designed by me. The CD contains passages containing Hawaiian and Japanese language. The CD really is fun and from the heart. Ikaika lends his vocal talent toward Dont Know Why, Lenny And the SKIM, and E Hai Ana Wau thereby enabling the Green Light Go sound to stand up to most, if not all professional grade vocals. I do what I can, but in my humble opinion, Ikaika is definitely the real deal, and working with him over the years has been nothing short of soulfully spontaneous and humbling. While Ikaika is in Medical School, I will be performing tracks from the CD island wide (and hopefully internationally) for at least the next year or two. In the meantime, Im working on the next CD, a solo and chamber acoustic CD for solo uke, guitar and vocal (mostly). That should be out later this year also (August or September). I have also produced several new and upcoming talents (none you've heard about yet) and I hope to continue to produce artists from Hawaii and abroad. I usually perform with the GLG band at "Moose's" in Waikiki on Lewers, but that's more of a cover band focus, geared towards the mainland pop crowds. The full Green Light Go band (4-5 members) can do private parties, weddings whatever, so contact me if youre interested (kkahoano@yahoo.com). Performances include : KSSK Aloha Morning Show, Jan 4th Hula Competition in Japan (solo ukulele), 102.7, 93.1 (interview only), Kahala Mall, Ala Moana Centerstage, Moose McGullucody's in Waikiki, Brew Moon and Local Motion, J-Wave (Broadcast in Tokyo), UH Campus Center, KTUH Monday Night Live, First Friday Gallery Walk, KHNL news 8 Morning Show. Upcoming performances, interviews, reviews and blogs can be view on the myspace page (myspace.com/glghawaii). One way to hear four of the CD tracks is to visit the band page (same as above) and click on the tracks to hear them play back. Aloha Kamuela Kahoano GLG
