Details: Rolland Harisona (wich actually is his real name), is the creator of a new concept. Making a french pop-rock music without any drums in the sound. With this, started the Jam Muppets. It was a "standalone" group since their beginning in 2003; doing all by themselves: albums, publicity, concertsetc. They worked with various actors in the french music industry, such as Jacques Chopin (Mayra Andrade), Guizmo (Tryo), Alexandre Gonot (Alanis Morissette, Muse, Lara Fabian...etc). With more than 200 concerts (clubs, festivals, summer-stages...), the group become a serious and confident choice on the west coast. But because Rolland Harisona, is someone who likes the evolution, he decides in 2009 to take such as Bruce Springsteen, one of his reference a more personnal road, with his creations composed during 2008-2009. His new show is more intimate, he just plays with his friend Emeric Chauvet (who plays guitar, percussions and singing), so he can come back to one of his favorite source: the spontaneity and the simplicity of the songwriter. The universe of Rolland is very large. He takes many style pop, folk, spanish, rock, and he give them a very personnal feeling, so you will always know who you listen, however you hear a spanish musical song or a very cool and intimate text.
