Lo-fi Acoustic-Bass Blues Folk 10 MP3 Songs BLUES: Acoustic Blues, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Isaac Watts has been a musician all his life. Singing Oprea, Jazz, Blues, Rock and so many other styles he has always tried to find his "true" voice. Learning from his 15 years of acting to impersonate other singers voices he has pulled on many influences over the years, but caused a confusion on what genre he wanted to really pursue. After much soul searching and looking at the songs that over 20 years of song writing had come out, he realized that the music was the important part, not where it fit. So came along the songs for "Face Down in the Deep End...". This collection of songs is not only a very personal look at Isaac, but a true vision of who he is, and many aspects of his life.
